

Family Fun Day

New Lanark World Heritage Village

Sunday 28 August 2016
11am to 4:30pm

A free fun packed day
hosted by South Lanarkshire UNISON

With plenty of stalls, a tombola and a raffle, Indian Head Massage, the smoothie cycle, birds of prey, there's loads to see and do.

There's Scottish folk music from Alastair McDonald, acoustic blues from rock n hillbilly folk band 136, and some light original jazz from Mhairi.

For kids, there's even more too with balloon modelling, face painting and a bouncy castle... And that's all free too!

Free buses for UNISON members, families and friends too!
