

Recruitment monitoring information

UNISON's Equalities policy

UNISON is an equal opportunities employer. All job applicants are judged solely on their ability to do the job for which they are applying. To ensure that the aims of the policy are being achieved UNISON needs to record certain personal details about applicants. You are therefore requested to provide the monitoring information, which will be treated in the strictest confidence.

This information will be held on computer files for the purposes of monitoring the operation of the policy on equalities and is subject to the provisions of the Data Protection Act. All unsuccessful application forms will be destroyed after six months.
